EDE STUDENTS ATTEND A LEADER CONFERENCE

By: Waranya Boontot, Education English, Year 3

A 3-day, 2-night camp brought together students from various countries, including Thailand, China, the Philippines, South Korea, and more. Participants attended the opening ceremony and watched shows from various countries. In the afternoon, participants presented their ideas on the chosen topic in front of the judges. After dinner, participants gathered to discuss ideas and plan their presentations for the next day. Subsequently, the staff led everyone back to the hotel.

Participants were divided into 50 groups, each consisting of 7-10 members. The staff organized LINE groups for efficient communication within each group. Groups were often composed of participants from the same school or university, depending on the number of attendees.

On the first day, participants

The second day involved discussions on life and show performances in the morning. In the afternoon, participants presented to the committee to determine the top 10 presentations for the final round.

After dinner, participants had the opportunity to get to know each other better before bedtime.

On the last day, the top 10 participants showcased their presentations to everyone, and the top 3 winners were announced. The camp concluded with a peace concert.

During the journey back to the college, reflections on the entire conference took place. Participants realized that mutual encouragement helped them feel confident and perform at their very best.

RUB NONG WITH BE FRESHIES

One late Monday afternoon, our second-year students majoring in English for Business Communication enthusiastically organized the traditional "Rub Nong" activity for our 10 freshmen at the college football field.

Our five sophomore students planned and executed the entire activity with the intention of building a strong bond with their younger brothers and sisters. Moreover, some of our third-year students joined in and arranged some fun tasks for our "nongs" to enjoy.

Despite the somewhat gloomy weather that day, nothing could deter BE students from bonding and creating some great memories together.

MADAM'S 100 DAYS

The STIC family participated in a memorial mass to pay the highest honor to Madam Dr. Theresa Virachanee Phromsuntorn on her 100th day at Joseph-Marie Building on June 5. The entire community was united in spirit, offering heartfelt prayers for the soul of our beloved Madam. The Catholic mass, lasting an hour, was filled with uplifting messages from the Bible, emotional homilies from our resident priests, songs of praise to the Almighty, prayers from the faithful, and moments of union with Him.

Following the solemn memorial mass, the entire STIC family shared a savory luncheon. While dining, conversations echoed with testimonies of the kindness of our beloved Madam. Additionally, discussions about how much we miss her were expressed by many.

STIC profoundly misses you,
Madam Dr. Theresa Virachanee
Phromsuntorn.

FACULTY OF NURSING FOUNDING ANNIVERSARY

By: Saranphong Wongboonsri, Nursing Science, Year 4

On June 16, the Faculty of Nursing Science celebrated its 17th founding anniversary with the ultimate purpose of raising funds to support the St. Theresa Vipa Ratchanee Nursing Foundation. This foundation continuously supports deserving students with scholarship grants, provides financial incentives to outstanding alumni, lecturers, and staff, extends research funds for further professional knowledge, and supports other missions concerning the development of the nursing profession.

Gracing the event were

Rector Dr. Piyada Wattanasana, Dr. Chaipat Wattanasan, Aj. Suwat Benjathammatorn, faculty deans, and some members of the administrative and research departments. Aside from all the festivities, one of the highlights of the anniversary celebration was giving recognition to the faculty's representatives who participated in academic conferences and brought achievements for the faculty, and awarding financial grants amounting to 100,000 baht. Among the recipients were Poonyisa Chanthasit (30,000 baht), Phurichaya Tetchasukhun (30,000 baht), Kalyarat Saeyang (20,000 baht), and Narumon Mueangmao (20,000 baht).

The Faculty of Nursing Science family members are grateful for all the generosity and warm love they have received over the years. They will continue to exert efforts to make St. Theresa International College a household name for all aspiring nurses and professionals in the medical field here in Thailand.

Congratulations to the Faculty of Nursing Science, and here's to more years to celebrate.

FACULTY OF NURSING SCIENCE CAPPING AND NIGHTINGALE LAMP LIGHTING

By: Armina Khonkaen, Nursing Science, Year 2

The annual nursing capping ceremony is one of the most anticipated events in the lives of nursing students, marking a crucial moment for all aspiring nurses. In this year's nursing capping event, Dr. Piyada Wattanasan presided over the ceremony.

During the capping ceremony, our nursing students walked in lines inside the Joseph-Marie Building and approached Dr. Piyada Wattanasan to receive their nursing caps. Following that, Ms. Vipha Pengsa-ium, the Dean of the Faculty of Nursing Science, pinned the caps onto them, assisted by other nursing lecturers.

Another highly anticipated ceremony for nursing students is the Nightingale Lamp Lighting. All nursing students receive their Nightingale lamps as the nursing representative approaches the Dean to light the lamp for everyone. Subsequently, the year 3 nursing students gather in front of the building, awaiting the freshmen nursing students, and express their appreciation by singing songs in recognition of their achievements.

STIC WAS PURPOSEFULLY VISITED

On June 23-24, St. Theresa International College welcomed teachers from Loei, Udon Thani, Nong Bualampu, and Nong Khai provinces for a purposeful visit to our college. Dr. Piyada Wattanasan expressed her warmest greetings to our beloved visitors. Then, Assistant Professor Dr. Suphak Pibul, Dean of the Faculty of Education, gave a lecture on "PA: From a Challenge to Innovation." Ajarn Suwat Benjathammathorn presented some souvenirs and awarded them certificates.

After the talk sessions, they enjoyed sumptuous meals and took a stroll around the campus to see the college buildings and facilities.

St. Theresa International and hopes for more purposeful visits College is very grateful for your visit in the future.
