

TRSU HOLDS ROYAL BLESSING CEREMONY IN HONOR OF HIS MAJESTY KING RAMA X

By: Banthita Thongwiwek, English for Business Communication, Year 2)

On Friday, July 25, 2025, St Teresa International University held Joseph-Marie Vajiralongkorn Maha Vajiraklaochaoyuhua (King Rama Majesty. X).

Benjathammathon, Suwat Vice President and Administration. Majesty.

The event took place at the Building, royal blessing ceremony to participants presented ceremonial Thailand, commemorate the 73rd birthday offerings (phan phum) and signed leadership, and dedication to the anniversary of His Majesty King the book of blessings to express their nation. Phra reverence and best wishes for His The ceremony aimed to:

King Maha Vajiralongkorn, The ceremony was led by Mr. born on July 28, 1952, in Bangkok, Vice is the only son of King Bhumibol • President of the University Council Adulyadej (Rama IX) and Queen for Sirikit. He was appointed Crown . along with Dr. Prince in 1972 and ascended the Chaipat Wattanasarn, Vice President throne following the passing of his for Academic Affairs. They were father in October 2016. He officially joined by faculty members, staff, and became the tenth monarch of the students in a heartfelt tribute to His Chakri Dynasty on December 1, 2016.

His birthday, July 28, is where recognized as a national holiday in celebrating life.

- Express respect and loyalty to His Majesty the King,
- Offer blessings for his continued health, happiness, and long life,
- Promote national unity and patriotic spirit among Thai citizens, and
- Acknowledge the enduring importance of the monarchy in Thai society.

WAI KHRU CEREMONY UPHOLDS THAI TRADITION OF RESPECT AND LEARNING AT TRSU

By: Wanwipa Penthaisong, English for Business Communication, Year 3

Teresa International University proudly held its annual • Wai Khru Ceremony, a significant tradition in Thai educational culture. This special event allows students to • express their gratitude, respect, and appreciation to their teachers—those who impart knowledge, wisdom, and guidance.

Wai Khru, which translates to "Paying Respect to Teachers," holds attended by first-year students. Each It does not only honor the essential by role of teachers but also:

education.

- preserves a meaningful Thai students generations.
- students' academic models.

The event was primarily school year ahead. student boosts teachers' morale and members to lead the ritual. A Teresa strengthens their dedication to highlight of the ceremony was a (TRSU).

heartfelt choir performance by from the English for tradition, passed down through Business Communication program.

As part of the Thai tradition, marks the formal beginning of students offered flower garlands to journey, their teachers and received sacred symbolizing their acceptance of threads tied around their wrists—a teachers as mentors and role gesture believed to bring blessings, protection, and good fortune for the

The ceremony deep cultural and educational value. academic program was represented beautiful reflection of respect, unity, delegates carrying and cultural pride that continues to ceremonial trays, joined by faculty enrich the learning environment at St International

MIDTERM EXAM WEEK AT TRSU

By: Nathawadee Ophawarakul, English for Business Communication, Year 3

Teresa International University has officially released the schedule for the upcoming midterm examinations, which will take place from Tuesday, July 29, to Friday, August 1, 2025. All students from various faculties are advised to check their individual timetables and begin preparing accordingly. The university strongly emphasizes the importance of punctuality and strict compliance with exam regulations. Detailed subject schedules and assigned examination venues will be available via the university's official portal and departmental bulletin boards. Students who require further clarification assistance or encouraged to contact their respective faculty offices. As the midterm examination week approaches, TRSU diligently students are seen preparing—joining study groups, reviewing notes late into the night, and striving for academic excellence.

The atmosphere is filled with determination, as students aim to achieve outstanding scores and make their families proud.

We wish all TRSU students the best of luck. Study hard, stay focused, and success will follow. Congratulations in advance!

A HEART WARMING CELEBRATION FOR DR. PIYADA'S BIRTHDAY AT TRSU

On July 18, the St Teresa International University (TRSU) anticipated family came together at the birthday song, attendees lined up Joseph-Marie Building celebrate the birthday of Dr. thoughtfully prepared for Piyada Wattanasan, President of occasion. TRSU, with a joyful luncheon gathering.

The celebration began university with warm birthday greetings and everyone in attendance was given heartfelt wishes from her family, special souvenirs as a token of followed by messages of love the memorable celebration. and appreciation from the various faculties and administrative offices of the university. The event was filled with laughter, smiles, and lively conversations, creating a cheerful and festive atmosphere.

muchofthe singing to to enjoy a sumptuous lunch,

Piyada received meaningful gifts from the community, while

The TRSU family extends its warmest and most heartfelt birthday wishes to Dr. Piyada, celebrating not only her special day but also her inspiring leadership and unwavering dedication to the university.

TRSU THANKSGIVING MASS FOR NEW ACADEMIC YEAR

Fr. Peter Nguyen Huu Biet, academic community. Director of Camillian Home for Aged, Prachinburi, graciously presided over the Holy Mass of Thanksgiving to mark the beginning of the Academic Year 2025.

attended bv the executive administrators, faculty of the Administration Building. members, staff, and students, who came together in a spirit of unity and gratitude to seek blessings for the year ahead.

The Mass served as a journey. moment of reflection, inspiration,

On the 3rd of July, Rev. and spiritual renewal for the entire

As part of its ongoing spiritual tradition, St Teresa International University warmly invites all Catholic and Christian faithful to participate in the Holy Mass, held every Wednesday at The sacred celebration was 11:30 a.m. at the university university's chapel located on the ground floor > weekly gathering This offers a meaningful opportunity for prayer, reflection, fellowship amid the academic

TRSU MOU ON EDUCATIONAL COOPERATION WITH WAT NONG CHOK SECONDARY SCHOOL

St International represented by Vice President of the potential Vice President Memorandum educational with Mr.

Teresa Inthayam, Director of Wat University, Nong Chok Secondary Ajarn School. The agreement Suwat Benjathammathorn, aims to develop students' and enhance University Council and their readiness for tertiaryfor level studies. The signing Administration, signed a ceremony took place on of July 23, 2025, at the Understanding (MoU) on Kanchanaphisek Building cooperation Auditorium of Wat Nong Prachuap Chok Secondary School.

TRSU HOSTS ANNUAL RUBNONG ACTIVITY TO WELCOME NEW STUDENTS

By: Nathawadee Ophawarakul, English for Business Communication, Year 3)

On July 18, 2025, the Student among University successfully organized the communication, and leadership. annual RubNong activity at Joseph-Marie Building to warmly welcome new and freshmen into the community.

aimed to foster meaningful connections and inclusive environment.

students while promoting Affairs Office of St Teresa International essential soft skills such as teamwork, interactive group activities, Association. university participants had the opportunit to build new friendships and begin their a vital role in pl university-wide event academic journey at TRSU in a positive organizing, and facilitating the

The success of the event was made possible by the dedication Through a variety of engaging enthusiasm of the TRSU Student

> Its leaders and members played role in planning, activities.

HONORING DEDICATION AND PROGRESS: A SERIES OF PINNING CEREMONIES AT TRSU

By: Wanwipha Penthaisong, English for Business Communication, Year 3

June 25, 2025 – Pinning of Epaulette Ceremony (Air Traffic Control)

On June 25, 2025, the Faculty of Business Administration proudly hosted the Pinning of Epaulette Ceremony students majoring in Air Traffic Control, Academic Year 2025. The event was led by Wing Commander Surat Sridech, Head of the Air Traffic Control Department.

This meaningful tradition each marks student's academic progress and rank, symbolized through the epaulettes they receive. Surrounded faculty by advisors, professors, and peers, the students took part in a heartfelt gathering filled encouragement warm blessings. Professors offered words of wisdom and motivation, inspiring future air traffic controllers to stay committed and soar high in their careers.

Ceremony (Aeronautics)

On July 4, 2025, the Faculty of Business Administration once again celebrated another milestone with the Pinning Ceremony for Aeronautics students was jubilant and filled their with pride as students, professional journeys.

July 4, 2025 – Pinning dressed in their formal uniforms, received their pins in recognition of their dedication and progression in the field.

> The ceremony served not only as a academic formal tradition but also as a strong motivational push as the students move forward with confidence The atmosphere into the next stages of academic

St TERESA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

FACULTY O (English for Business Communication) SAND SOCI

July 16, 2025 – Pinning Ceremony

majoring in English business communication. students for Business Communication.

The event, held in the than students for a symbolic celebration journey of academic growth and community. excellence.

With beaming smiles dressed in professional attire, the students received their brooches and name pins from the Faculty Dean, The Faculty of Humanities Deputy Dean, and lecturers—each and Social Sciences held its Pinning pin a reminder of their hard work Ceremony on July 16, 2025, for and promising future in the world of

These ceremonies are more just formalities—they Language and Arts Edifice, brought moments of inspiration, unity, and together proud faculty members and recognition that mark the students' toward professional

St Teresa International University marked the first-ever edition of its Library Activity Week with a special workshop titled "AI for Research", led by Assoc. Prof. Dr. Pitak Thongsook.

TRSU LAUNCHES INAUGURAL LIBRARY ACTIVITY WEEK WITH WORKSHOP ON AI FOR RESEARCH

2:00 PM to 3:00 PM, the workshop Academic. among faculty, staff, and students. effective AI use in academia. The session aimed to introduce the practical applications of Artificial Intelligence in academic researchan increasingly relevant topic in modern education.

educational technology and research events. methodologies, guided attendees through key insights on how AI tools can enhance research productivity, streamline data analysis, and support innovation in scholarly writing.

The event was organized by research. the TRSU Library team and

Held on Friday, July 18, from facilitated by the Librarian Staff It also featured was conducted both onsite at the interactive components and a O&A Academic Center and online via session that engaged participants in Zoom, allowing broad participation lively discussions on responsible and Interested participants were able to register via QR code, and the university encouraged all students and educators to follow the TRSU Library Facebook page, "Library St Dr. Thongsook, an expert in Teresa," for updates on future

> This pioneering event reflects TRSU's commitment to fostering a forward-thinking academic environment embraces that technology education in and

On July 9, 2025, St Teresa International University, in collaboration with Bangpakok International Hospital, successfully held its Annual Health Check-up

TRSU HOLDS ANNUAL HEALTH CHECK-UP IN PARTNERSHIP WITH BANGPAKOK 9 HOSPITAL

Program at the JMB receive Auditorium. The event consultations, administrators, staff, members, and students to take part in a and wellness.

initiative aimed to academic environment. This promote better health awareness within the university community. Participants had the opportunity to medical personalized learn about their ran from 7:00 AM to current health status, 3:00 PM and welcomed practical advice on maintaining a faculty healthy lifestyle

The event was well-received and marked another step forward in day dedicated to health the university's commitment to fostering a healthy and caring

EDITORIAL BOARD

Layout Artist

Aj. Willard Jeff V. Pada

Junior Layout Artist

Banthita Thongwiwek

Kantinan Dokmai

Editor-in-Chief

Aj. Leo Anthony B. Flores

Junior Editor

Wanwipha Penthaisong

Writers

Nathawadee Ophawarakul

Chutikant Phansitha

Photos by

St Teresa International University

CHARITY VISIT TO BAN HATHAI KAROON: A DAY OF LOVE AND INSPIRATION

By: Piyathep Khamkhwa, Public Health , Year 2

there. Many including my fellow TRSU Catholic these moments friends and lecturer, church members, and dedicated volunteers.

morning and continued into the early deep admiration for their strength and I can. afternoon. Its main purpose was the love they continue to radiate

Last Saturday, July 5, I had the simple yet profound: to bring joy to despite kind-hearted children—laughing, talking,

I felt both joyful and deeply moved. Seeing the children's bright feeling grateful, inspired, and more The visit took place in the smiles filled my heart, but I also felt a committed to helping others whenever their challenging opportunity to join a meaningful the children and to let them know they circumstances. This experience charity visit to Ban Hathai Karoon, a are loved, valued, and not forgotten. reminded me that even the smallest act home for children located in Khlong The atmosphere throughout the day of kindness can make a big difference Nueang Khet, Mueang was warm and cheerful. We played in someone's life. One verse stayed District, Chachoengsao. The activity games, sang songs, handed out snacks with me throughout the day—Matthew was organized to offer support, love, and small gifts, and most importantly, 18:5: "Whoever welcomes one such and encouragement to the children spent time connecting with the child in my name welcomes me." It and reminded me that showing love and individuals took part in the event, sharing smiles. While participating in care, especially to children, is a true expression of faith in action.

I left Ban Hathai Karoon

TRSU SUCCESSFULLY CONCLUDES WORKSHOP ON INNOVATION AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY FOR FACULTY MEMBERS

ขอเรียนเชิญคณาจารย์ทุกท่านร่วมประชุมเชิงปฏิบัติการ การพัฒนานวัตกรรมและ ผลงานสร้างสรรค์สู่การ คุ้มครองทรัพย์สินทางปัญญา (ลิขสิทธิ์ อนุสิทธิบัตร และสิทธิบัตร)

8.00 AM - 5.00 PM

NOTES เรียนเชิญท่านที่มีผลงาน นวัตกรรมและงานสร้างสรรค์ ร่วมแลกเปลี่ยนเรียนรู้ เขียน คำขอแจ้งข้อมูลลิขสิทธิ์ คำขอ จดทะเบียนอนุสิทธิบัตร และ สิทธิบัตรด้วยกัน

วิทยากรผู้ทรงคุณวุฒิ จากกรมทรัพย์สินทางปัญญา

Science successfully hosted a guest hands-on workshop "Innovation Property Protection (Copyright, speaker, Petty Patent, and Patent)" on July Boonprakob, 21-22, 2025. The two-day event intellectual property management. took place from 8:00 AM to 5:00 Nursing Science

Organized by Committee workshop aimed faculty members' knowledge and safeguarding skills Participants gained insights on disclosures, registering copyrights, and protected research and applying for patents and petty development within the university. patents, and understanding the rights associated legal

Teresa International intellectual property. The sessions University's Faculty of Nursing were led by two distinguished speakers titled Department Intellectual Development and Property: Mr. Thawisak Suksawat, Creative Work Toward Intellectual a seasoned trainer and public and Mr. Anupap expert

Faculty members actively PM at Room 2106, Faculty of engaged in discussions and hands-Building. on activities, exchanging ideas and the experiences related to innovation Intellectual and environments. IP protection. Property Registration, Copyrights, Many also took the opportunity to Petty Patents, and Patents, the begin the registration process for enhance their works during the sessions.

The their vital step in promoting a culture of innovative and creative outputs. innovation, creativity, and legal valuable awareness among academic staff, writing invention paving the way for more structured organized by St. Teresa International items to help support the temple's observance of Buddhist Lent Day, also improving by monks during their annual three- sincere gratitude for our contributions rooted in month retreat.

TRSU STUDENTS TEMPLE VISIT ON BUDDHIST LENT

By: Kantinan Dokmai, English for Business Communication, Year 2

On July 9th, had the privilege electric light bulbs, cleaning supplies, good deeds while preserving our participating in an activity daily essentials, and other necessary cultural and religious heritage. the We also donated and encouraged us to continue doing contributing positively to society

This experience was more than University. Together with a group of upkeep and daily operations. These just an act of giving—it was a valuable students and a professor, we visited offerings were made with the intention lesson in tradition, community, and local temples to make merit in of supporting the monks' practice and selflessness. I felt truly honored to be temple's overall part of an activity that deeply connects known as Kao Phansa Day. As part of environment. The temple's abbot with Thai values and beliefs. It our visit, we offered large traditional warmly welcomed us and gave us his reminded me of the power of Buddhist Lent candles, which are used heartfelt blessings. He expressed generosity and inspired me to stay

By: Chutikant Phansitha, English for Business Communication, Year 2

On July 11, 2025, people across Thailand celebrated Buddhist Lent Day—a sacred occasion marking the beginning of the three-month rainy season retreat, during which monks remain in their temples to focus on meditation and study.

early morning, In the communities gathered to offer food, flowers, and candles to the monks, a gesture of respect and merit-making. Streets near temples came alive with colorful banners, lanterns, and lights, while some temples hosted evening creating a serene and mindfulness, Traditional such robes, listening Dhamma sermons added richness.

BUDDHIST LENT DAY IN THAILAND

refrain alcohol, moral and spiritual well-being.

Temples across the country heritage. warmly welcome visitors to join in these observances. traditions.

only honors a long-standing Buddhist contributing positively to society. custom but also inspires people—both candlelight processions, locals and visitors—to live with generosity, enchanting atmosphere. compassion. Rooted in centuries-old practices traditions, Buddhist Lent continues to presenting be a vivid reflection of Thailand's making merit, deep spiritual values and cultural to identity.

Cleaning supplies, to the day's spiritual essentials, and other necessary items to help support the temple's upkeep and Buddhist Lent is a time daily operations. These offerings were for reflection, kindness, made with the intention of supporting self-discipline. the monks' practice and improving the Many people choose to temple's overall environment.

cultivate The temple's abbot warmly welcomed patience, and dedicate more time to us and gave us his heartfelt blessings. meditation or acts of charity. It is a He expressed sincere gratitude for our to slow down, nurture contributions and encouraged us to compassion, and strengthen one's continue doing good deeds while preservinour cultural and religious

This experience was more than Whether just an act of giving—it was a valuable participating in a merit-making lesson in tradition, community, and ceremony, enjoying the peaceful selflessness. I felt truly honored to be ambiance, or learning about Thailand's part of an activity that deeply connects spiritual heritage, guests can immerse with Thai values and beliefs. It themselves in meaningful cultural reminded me of the power of generosity and inspired me to stay This annual observance not rooted in my culture while